PROVO, UTAH, AND SALT LAKE CITY—Anyone who has read the words of Isaiah knows that it can be a confusing experience. In 3 Nephi 23:1, Jesus Christ set forth the command to “search these things [Isaiah’s writings] diligently.” But for many, Isaiah’s teachings are confusing, making this commandment a difficult one to keep. A new introductory volume, Search Diligently the Words of Isaiah, unlocks the barriers to understanding Isaiah, helping Latter-day Saints understand and appreciate Isaiah’s words.

Search Diligently the Words of Isaiah is designed specifically to help members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints better understand Isaiah’s writings as those writings testify of Jesus Christ, his mortal ministry, his Second Coming, his millennial reign, and the Restoration of his gospel.

The book of Isaiah is an exceptional, one-of-a-kind book—both in its presentation and in its message about the Savior Jesus Christ and his Atonement. The book of Isaiah is significant because it presents the direct words of Jesus Christ, totaling more than two hundred quotations.

This volume details who Isaiah was, explains why his words are so important, gives cultural and historical context to his writings, and provides keys to decipher the many literary devices he used in his writing. But most importantly, it gives readers of Isaiah the context and tools they need to fully understand his powerful testimony of Jesus Christ.
