

Oliver Cowdery

In 2006, Brigham Young University and the Religious Studies Center hosted the annual Church History Symposium on Oliver Cowdery.

The Religious Studies Center (RSC) has published a book of selected articles from the proceeds of the Oliver Cowdery symposium. For more information or to order this book online, please visit our Web site at http://rsc.byu.edu/rsc_rec_pub.php

Contents

Oliver's Joseph

Richard L. Bushman

The Conversion of Oliver Cowdery

Larry E. Morris

Oliver Cowdery as Book of Mormon Scribe

Royal Skousen

Oliver Cowdery as Second Witness of Priesthood Restoration

Steven C. Harper

Oliver Cowdery in the Doctrine and Covenants

Susan Easton Black

Oliver Cowdery's Correspondence with Joseph Smith

Grant Underwood

Images of Oliver

Patrick A. Bishop

Raising Money in Righteousness: Oliver Cowdery as Banker

Mark L. Staker

Oliver Cowdery as Editor, Defender, and Justice of the Peace in Kirtland

John W. Welch

Oliver Cowdery's Legal Practice in Tiffin, Ohio

Jeffrey N. Walker

Elizabeth Ann Whitmer Cowdery: A Historical Reflection of Her Life

Ronald E. Romig

The 1911 Dedication of the Oliver Cowdery Monument in Richmond, Missouri

Richard Neitzel Holzapfel and Robert F. Schwartz

RELIGIOUS STUDIES CENTER
Established in 1975 by Jeffrey R. Holland