

Susan W. Tanner

SUSAN W. TANNER, daughter of Richard and Barbara Winder, grew up with three brothers in Utah. She graduated from BYU in humanities with an emphasis in English and French. Susan and her husband, John, have five children and twenty grandchildren. She has presided in all the women’s auxiliaries at both the ward and stake levels, has been on Church writing committees, and was a member of the Relief Society General Board before being called as Young Women General President in 2002. In 2009 she was called to write Daughters in My Kingdom. Recently Susan served with John as mission president and companion to the Brazil São Paulo South Mission. Now, they enjoy their assignment at BYU–Hawaii.

Thomas A. Wayment

THOMAS A. WAYMENT is a professor in the Department of Ancient Scripture at Brigham Young University and the publications director of the Religious Studies Center. His current research interests are in papyrology (with emphasis on Christian literary texts), the rise of Christianity in Egypt (particularly at Oxyrhynchus), and the presence of Jews and Christians at Pompeii. He recently published Christian Oxyrhynchus: Texts, Documents, and Sources together with Lincoln H. Blumell.

Anthony R. Sweat

ANTHONY R. SWEAT is an assistant professor of Church history and doctrine at Brigham Young University. He received his bachelor’s degree in painting and drawing and his PhD in curriculum and instruction. Dr. Sweat’s research and scholarly publications focus on factors related to effective religious education pedagogy. Anthony is also the author of several books, most recently The Holy Invitation: Understanding Your Sacred Temple Endowment and Christ in Every Hour. He and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of seven children.

2018 BYU

Easter Conference

Welcome: Brent L. Top

Opening Hymn: Christ the Lord is Risen Today

Invocation: Yuri Haruyama—Sophomore, Studying Business Management

Anthony R. Sweat

A King and His Crown: Who, How, and Why We Worship

Thomas A. Wayment

The Tragedy and Triumph of the Resurrection

Solo by Coleman Packer

“That Night in Gethsemane,” by Lawrence Lee and Kathleen Holyoak

Accompaniment by Katie Andresen

Keynote Speaker:

Susan W. Tanner

Jesus Christ, Our Healer

Benediction: Devin Singh—Masters of Religious Studies / Chaplain Program Student

Pianist and chorister: Katie Andresen and Madeline Martin

Have a happy Easter!