1. Record of the Kalaupapa Branch Presidency, Kalaupapa Branch Records (1885–1945), LR 4289 11, vol. 4s, Church History Library. This record can be supplemented by an article titled “General Conference in the Sandwich Islands,” Deseret Evening News, February 13, 1874, which notes that by October 8, 1873, Jonathan Napela was listed as the first known Kalaupapa branch president: “A Semi-annual General Conference of the Sandwich Islands Mission of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, was held at Lāi‘e, Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, Oct. 6, 7, and 8, 1873. . . . Napela presides at the Kalaupapa, Island of Malokai [sic].” (See also the MHHM, October 8, 1873.) Five years later, there were two LDS Church branches; one in Kalawao and the other in Kalaupapa. At this time Napela served as the district president over both branches until his death in 1879. From 1879 to 1887 there is no record of who the Kalaupapa branch presidency was. The record above records branch presidents from 1888 to 1945. Other records reveal that Jonah Mahelona continued to serve as the branch president until 1952 when he was replaced by Jack Sing Kong, who continued to serve as the Kalaupapa branch president until his death in December 1983. Jack was the last local branch president at Kalaupapa. The 1888–1945 branch presidency information can be compared with a contemporary source titled “Records of the Branch Presidency,” Kalaupapa Branch, Hawaii Mission, General Minutes, vol. 2, 36–39, LR 4289 11, Church History Library, Salt Lake City. Additional supplemental information can be drawn from Andrew Jensen’s MHHM and other documents in the possession of the author.
