THREE LETTERS TO THE
NEW YORK HERALD,

FROM J. M. GRANT, OF UTAH.

LETTER I.

[FROM THE HERALD OF MARCH 9, 1852.]

Letter from the Mayor of Great Salt Lake City.

Mormonism by a Mormon Polygamy—Murder—Jackson in Heaven—Taylor in Limbo—
Stiff Necks and Superstition—Astounding Developments, &c.

JAMES GORDON BENNETT, Esq.

Sir: I will thank you to print, as soon as you can, the substance of this letter. Considered only as news, it ought to be worth your while. There is a great curiosity everywhere to hear about the Mormons, and eagerness to know all the evil that can be spoken of them. Announce you that I am a Mormon Elder, just arrived from Utah—Mayor, in fact, of Salt Lake City, where my wife and family are still living—a preacher, brigadier of horse, and President of the Quorum of Seventies, and the like; and not one subscriber that waded over shoe-tops through the slime of details you gave of the play actor's divorce trial lately, will not be greedy to read all I have to say, about the filthier accusations that have been brought against me, and my friends and brethren. This is what I have to count upon, thank Falschood. And, if you will publish my letter entire, I will ask for no editorial help from you. I am no Writer; but, with the help

The Backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways.
