

MOSES 4

[1] And I the Lord God spake unto Moses saying, That Satan whom thou hast commanded in the name of mine only begotten is the same which was from the beginning, and he came before me saying, Behold \¹ I², send me, I will be thy Son, and I will redeem all mankind, that one soul shall not be lost; and surely, I will do it; Wherefore, give me thine honor. [2] But, behold; my beloved Son, which was my beloved and chosen from the beginning, ~~said~~ <said>³ unto me;

Father, thy will be done, and the glory be thine forever⁴. [3] Wherefore, because that satan rebelled against me, and sought to destroy the

Agency of man, which I, the Lord God had given him; and also that I should give unto him mine own power; by the power of mine only begotten, I caused that he should be cast down, [4] and he became Satan; yea, even the Devil, the father of all lies, to deceive, and to blind men, and to lead them captive at his will, even as many as would not hearken unto my voice. [5] and now the Serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which I the Lord God had made [6] and Satan put it into the heart of 1888, 1902, 1921, 1981. Some small insertions in OT1, page 7, appear to be in the handwriting of Joseph Smith. They were made sometime after March–April 1831 (when OT2 was transcribed) and most likely before July 1832 (when work resumed on Genesis after the completion of the New Testament). These insertions were probably made before the Prophet decided that OT2 would be the manuscript on which further changes in the Genesis translation would be made.
